“Becoming the Person God Wants You to be through Self Control”
2 Peter 1: 5-7

1. What Self-Control is not:

- a. It's not an absence of passion.
- b. It's not rigid self-discipline.
- c. It's not sinless perfection.

2. What Self-Control is: a mastery of passions. Decisions are made, not by emotion or desire, but rather on the basis of God's will.

3. How is Self-Control Obtained?

- a. It is a fruit of the Spirit (Gal. 5:22-23)
- b. It is a sign of Christian maturity. As we walk closer to His will, it becomes more evident.
- c. It is often learned by observing the unfortunate results of its absence.
