

The Tabernacle

July 27, 2008 • Dr. David Self

The Tabernacle: Prepare Me a Sanctuary

Exodus 25-30

I. Worship Seldom Follows the Path of Least Resistance

(Exodus 26)

A. Sometimes it's complicated (27:16)

B. Start with the Right Gate

II. Worship Involves Sacrifice (27:1-8, cf. 12:21)

III. Worship Requires Confession & Cleansing (30:17-21)

Additional Resources:

A Woman's Heart-God's Dwelling Place: Study by Beth Moore

Building A House of Prayer: Study by Mary Ann Bridgwater

The Tabernacle-Shadow of the Messiah: Book by David M. Levy

The Tabernacle and the Day of Atonement: Video by AVM Presentations

Fall 08 Milestones Class: Who Am I and Why Am I Here? - Diane Bagby

(over →)

Houston's First Baptist Church • www.HoustonsFirst.org

Be a container for His testimony, being assured of His provision and that you are a part of the chosen priesthood. Keep Him on the throne of your heart.

Spend time in the light of His presence and then show forth His light.

Worship the Lord daily and pray to Him for yourself, others and those in authority.

Enjoy the fellowship and acceptance of His table. Partake of His Word, ingest and digest the "bread of life" and then give it out to those who are hungry.

Cleanse your soul daily letting His Word wash you clean.

Be mindful of His sacrifice in your behalf. He is the Lamb of God.

Present yourself before Him as a living sacrifice. He is the way to be reconciled with God.

Tabernacle Prayer Walk