

Yard Games and Candy 100 -200 people

GOAL: To connect with your neighbors and neighborhood visitors by hosting a simple hangout with little prep time.

Supplies: Your Favorite Yard Games, Candy, Church Invite Cards Total prep time: 1 hour
Estimated event cost: $30-$50 (cost of candy)

Instructions:

1. Set up your favorite yard games like ladder golf, corn hole, or ring toss. Consider teaming up with a couple of neighbors if you need more yard games. Set up an outdoor firepit for an added touch! (If you don't own any yard games, you can DIY simple games with an internet search with minimal supplies.)
2. Prepare an outdoor table or chairs to pass out candy and church invite cards.
3. Create a fun moment by having the children participate in the yard games to "win" candy. Everyone receives candy for participating!
4. Greet and welcome parents. Start friendly conversations and be ready to compliment, encourage, and pray for people. (Tip: Include all of your family members in hosting games and engaging in conversations.)

Grill Block Party ${ }_{10-50}$ people

GOAL: To invite your neighbors to dinner at your house. The idea is to be intentional in developing relationships with the people you invite by eating, fellowshipping, and caring for them.

Meal idea: Hamburgers and hot dogs
Total prep time: Approx. 2-3 hrs
Food prep time: 20-30 mins
Cook time: 30-45 mins
Set-up time: 20 mins

Serves: 30

Estimated event cost: $$ 50-$ 100$ (depending on guest count)

Instructions:

1. Make the patties by weighing them so that they are all the same size, ensuring meat cooks evenly.
2. Use heartier dinner rolls, regular hamburger/hot dog buns or slider buns. They vary in price.
3. Prepare condiments one day in advance. Most of the sauces can be made several days in advance, if you prefer.
4. Serve sauces in squeeze bottles and the remainder of the toppings in mason jars, bowls, and platters. Label each with the name of the condiment written on masking tape and stick to the front of the bottle/jar.

Spaghetti Block Party ${ }_{10-50}$ people

GOAL: To invite your neighbors to dinner at your house. The idea is to be intentional in developing relationships with the people you invite by eating, fellowshipping, and caring for them.

Meal idea: Spaghetti, salad, and bread

Serves: 30
Prep time: 2 hours approx.
Food prep time: 15 min
Cook time: 20 min
Set-up time: 45 min
Estimated event cost: $20-$60 depending on guest count

Cooking Instructions:

1. Combine the canned tomatoes (with juice), butte,r and onion halves in a saucepan. Add a pinch or two of salt.
2. Place over medium heat and bring to a simmer. Cook, uncovered, for about 45 minutes. Stir occasionally, mashing any large pieces of tomato with a spoon. Add salt as needed.
3. Discard the onion before adding the sauce into the pasta. This recipe makes enough sauce for a pound of pasta. Boil pasta as instructed on packaging.

You can assign different households to make a variety of different types of sauces such as classic tomato sauce, meat sauce or an Alfredo cheese sauce. Top with Parmesan cheese, basil, mushrooms, artichoke hearts, or tomatoes. Have everyone bring over their sauces, boil a big pot of pasta, and invite all your neighbors!
